Moody's Analytics Wins at FinTech Breakthrough Awards

LONDON, April 5, 2019 – Moody's Analytics, a leading provider of financial intelligence, has won Best Wealth Management Product in the 2019 FinTech Breakthrough Awards.

Our award-winning financial planning solution supports better wealth management decisions. It helps retail investors and their financial advisers to understand risk and select investment options, in the context of the investor's financial needs and risk profile.

"We're delighted to be recognized in the FinTech Breakthrough Awards," said Phil Mowbray, Senior Director at Moody's Analytics. "Assessing the suitability of investment options is critical. With our solution, clients can compare financial planning options and make more informed investment decisions."

Moody's Analytics offers a modular suite of financial planning solutions supporting investment product providers and advisers, from product design through customer advice and investment decisions into ongoing investment governance and suitability analysis. This helps to ensure compliance with regulation and leads to a superior customer experience. Our modern technology platform makes it easy for firms to access our capabilities, whether by integrating into in-house technology or accessing our analytics through our software-as-a-service offering.

The FinTech Breakthrough Awards recognize fintech innovators from around the world in banking, personal finance, regtech, and more. The 2019 awards program attracted more than 3,500 nominations.
