Moody's Analytics to Host Innovation Summit: April 30 in New York

NEW YORK, April 25, 2019 – Moody's Analytics, a global provider of financial intelligence, invites business leaders to examine how the world's largest financial firms are embracing technology and disrupting from within, at its 2019 Innovation Summit on Tuesday, April 30. This year's event focuses on actionable innovation insights.

Hosted by the Moody's Analytics Accelerator, the Innovation Summit will feature experts from Moody's Analytics, Credit Suisse, and Munich Re, who will discuss what it means to innovate with purpose. Sean Belka, of Fidelity, will deliver the keynote address, sharing insights and experiences on enterprise innovation gained as Head of Fidelity Labs.

A series of "lightning pitches" from Quantifind, Fintech Sandbox, and the Moody's Analytics Accelerator will allow attendees to learn from real examples of collaboration between startups and established enterprises. Other sessions will focus on how Moody's Analytics uses machine learning to automate the financial spreading process and how the company is using previously unusable, unstructured data to improve data usability and meet compliance goals.

"The financial services industry is embracing new ways of working through the use of technologies such as artificial intelligence, blockchain, and the cloud, to name a few," said Keith Berry, Executive Director of the Moody's Analytics Accelerator. "At our Innovation Summit, we will bring together experts in the field to discuss how new technologies are enabling solutions that lead to better, faster decisions. Attending the conference offers an exceptional opportunity to be part of this timely and important conversation."

Attendees will have the opportunity to learn about Moody's Analytics innovation strategy, hear how other finance giants are innovating in the enterprise and network with industry peers. Registration is complimentary.
